

A FISH

A few fish were what Jesus was offered when He realized His followers were hungry.

He took the fish, gave thanks to God and fed thousands.

He will do the same for you today. Give God thanks for what little you have and He will turn it into an abundance to meet your needs.

Look at this fish as a reminder of God's love for you and give thanks for all things so that He can turn them into blessings for you.

© Jamonministries.com

A FISH

A few fish were what Jesus was offered when He realized His followers were hungry.

He took the fish, gave thanks to God and fed thousands.

He will do the same for you today. Give God thanks for what little you have and He will turn it into an abundance to meet your needs.

Look at this fish as a reminder of God's love for you and give thanks for all things so that He can turn them into blessings for you.

© Jamonministries.com

A FISH

A few fish were what Jesus was offered when He realized His followers were hungry.

He took the fish, gave thanks to God and fed thousands.

He will do the same for you today. Give God thanks for what little you have and He will turn it into an abundance to meet your needs.

Look at this fish as a reminder of God's love for you and give thanks for all things so that He can turn them into blessings for you.

© Jamonministries.com

A FISH

A few fish were what Jesus was offered when He realized His followers were hungry.

He took the fish, gave thanks to God and fed thousands.

He will do the same for you today. Give God thanks for what little you have and He will turn it into an abundance to meet your needs.

Look at this fish as a reminder of God's love for you and give thanks for all things so that He can turn them into blessings for you.

© Jamonministries.com

